JWed Partners with EL AL on “Love is in the Air” Israel Trip Contest

New dating site members will be automatically entered to win

NEW YORK— The premier online Jewish dating site JWed is hosting a contest in partnership with EL AL Israel Airlines this February to celebrate a month of “Love is in the Air.” The lucky winner will receive two roundtrip tickets to Israel, a five-night complimentary stay at two luxury Dan Hotels with daily breakfast, and a free six-month membership to JWed. This prize includes a 3-night stay in the renovated executive sea view rooms in Dan Tel Aviv and a 2-night stay at the fully renovated luxury Dan Caesarea Resort. The contest, which runs until February 29th, marks the first collaboration between JWed and EL AL.

By registering for a JWed account, users are automatically entered into the contest.

“JWed is excited to partner with EL AL for this unique opportunity to win an extraordinary vacation package to Israel,” JWed CEO Ben Rabizadeh said. “The contest demonstrates our commitment to helping marriage-minded Jewish singles find love and meaningful, lasting relationships.”

With more than 3,400 success stories, JWed has solidified itself as the foremost online dating service that serves authentically Jewish singles. JWed is designed to foster meaningful connections that lead to long-term relationships and marriages.

The site uses proprietary two-way filters to provide custom profiles that enable Jewish singles to find matches who share their core values. With a firewall that filters out irrelevant matches, users can be confident that their suggested matches fit their preferences.
